Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas it has pleased our Heaven Whereas it has pleased our fleaven-ly Father to take from our midst our beloved pastor, Rev. Resolved 1. That we bow in loving submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, feeling that some great and good purpose underiles this divine act.

Resolved 2. That in the death of Bro. Edwards, Modestown and Mapps-ville Churches lose a consecrated and wise pastor, whose genial and loving nature won a place in every heart; the community loses a true friend and loyal citizen; the cause at large loses a strong supporter; and his fam ily circle loses a loving husband, a devoted father, a loyal son and true brother, whose place can never be filled.

Resolved 3. That we do hereby ex secration and zeal, with a burning love for God's eternal truth; and under God, his strong convincing sermons were the power of God unto salvation. The results of such a meeting can never be estimated this side of eternity, but as a partial result, there were 47 professions of faith in Christ and a mighty spirit of revival among the Christians. Twenty four have been received into the Bapton and the fatherless children he has left behind. May the God of all comfort soothe their aching hearts in these lonely hours of sadness! May the fragrant memory of their sainted dead be to each of them a blessed inspiration and even in the darkness of the valley through which they pass, may four have been received into the Bap-tist Church and others are expected the hope of reunion in heaven always cheer them on!
Resolved 4. That these resolutions

Accomac, Va.

Dear Sir: What will it cost to sow ten acres half wheat and half daisy mixed? and what'll the crop be worth? ten acres half wheat and half mixed? and what'll the crop be worth? We don't know what daisy seed costs, nor how bulky it is; we suspect half wheat and half daisy would make a big crop of daises, and last a long time; the wheat might be short.

The parable throws some light on the cost of a paint half whitewash. Whitewash, mixed half-and-half with Whitewash, mixed half-and-half with y paint, is all-paint in look and feel; indeed nineteenths of the "paint" in the deed nineteenths of the "paint" in the stores is part whitewash: some half, some more, some less.

Paint has to be spread with the Paint has to be spread with the brush, the surface preparate le ladders scaffolds pulleys and ropes arranged and moved, there's a great deal of labor in putting paint on; it costs $2 to $4 a gallon to do it.

What does it cost to paint whitewash? Just the same. Half-whitewash? Just the same. It doesn't seem worth while, for the whitewash does harm, not good.

In Memorism.

In sad remembrance of our dear mother, Surrenia C. Sommers, who departed this life April 13th, 1907. Death came without warning and called our mother away.

Her work on earth is done, And all her sorrows o'er, She is safe within the heavens, To dwell forever more.

Yes, mother, you are gone where oft you wished to be, your tears are dried, your sorrows all are gone, and now, my brothers and sisters, let us now, my brothers and sisters, let us all press on and meet that mother in the skies where she has so lately gone, for time does so swiftly fly when we will be forced to go and meet our great Redeemer, there to dwell forevermore. dwell forevermore By her daughter, P. F. Savage.

In the early morning of March 7th, 1906, the death angel softly entered the home of J. W. and Mary A. Northam and gently bore away the Northam and gently bore away the spirit of their dear and only beloved son, Roy F. Northam, in his 25th year.

Roy you are sleeping, gently sleeping, Lying there in the silent grave, And parents, you need not be weeping, For your Roy God has surely saved. One year, oh Roy, can it be,

These weary months we have mourned for thee,
And yet we feel so fresh the pain,
We count them o'er and o'er again. No word will ever seem so sweet,

As the words Roy used to say, No day will ever seem so sad, As the day he passed away. Gone in the best of his days, Blighted in manhood's bloom. Torn from the hearts that loved him.

To sleep in the silent tomb. No more to wake or to grieve, He is smiling on us from heaven, Roy has now fallen asleep.

His mother is so sad and lonely, Yet she thinks she hears his voice, But it is the song of angels, Bidding her aching heart rejoice. over the river of death he traveled.

He is waiting for his loved ones, In the Saviour's arms of love. Good-bye, dear Roy, but not forgotten, Nor will you ever be, For as long as life and memory lasts,

Now a crown for him alone,

We will remember thee. Aunt Olevia.

Phillip M. Somers, son of Mr. E. T. Phillip M. Somers, son of Mr. E. T. Somers and wife, was born March 17th, 1887, and died April 4th, 1907.
Phillip, as we all called him, was a kind and dutiful son, a tender and affectionate brother. He respected and honored his parents; he appreciated and loved his brothers and sisters. He tried to make home bright and happy, and frequently he would buy little things and bring them in saying "I thought you all would enjoy this."

He was taken with the pneumonia

He was taken with the pneumonia and was sick only about two weeks; then the death angel came and took him from us. Just about an hour before his death, he called his pastor in his room and said "I went out to his room and said "I want you to pray with me." After talking with him awhile on God's willingness to hear and answer us, father and mother and pastor bowed around his bed and lifted up their hearts to God in earnest supplications. The last models have been supplications. est supplications. The last words he ever spoke to this writer was when he took him by the hand and said:
"Phillip remember my son that Christ President, Dr. Frank Fletcher; vicepresident Jno. M. Bloxom; directors,
Dr. J. W. Bowdoin, Dr. W. W. Kerns,

Spring at DICKINSON'S Still Continues.

Our thanks are due to the people of this city, surrounding country and neighboring towns for the very gratifying manner in which they responded to the invitation to our Easter Opening of 1907; and we now extend another invitation equally as cordial to COME AGAIN. The selling all over the store was very lively and the assortments with which we commenced our opening were sadly broken. However we are constantly adding to our stock and our line of Dress Goods, Silks, Laces, Wash Goods, Underwear, etc., is once more complete and ready for your inspection.

Now is the time for Spring House Cleaning.

Hundreds of new homes are being furnished and old ones renovated. Do you intend adding the charm of draperies to complete the harmony of the home? Do you think of brightening and freshening the window with the airy grace of summery curtains? Are you in need of clean, cool, cheerful Mattings—right for the summer cottage or city home—anything in Furniture?—Wall Paper? Our Spring Stock is now on exhibition—view it. (It is quite the most elegant collection we have ever displayed.)

Millinery. Millinery. At reasonable prices is the demand of the hour, and we are ready to supply that demand. A Dickinson Hat to match your new Spring Suit is the last touch that assures that comfortable feeling that you are dressed in good taste and thoroughly up-to-date. W. S. DICKINSON & SON,
